the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 250 million to 800 million (FAO 1996).

There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming more food insecure. The most important are the increasing demand for food, the increasing demand for land, and the increasing demand for water. The increasing demand for food is due to the increasing population and the increasing demand for meat and other animal products. The increasing demand for land is due to the increasing demand for housing and other infrastructure. The increasing demand for water is due to the increasing demand for irrigation and other water-intensive activities.

The increasing demand for food, land, and water is putting pressure on the world's natural resources. This is leading to the depletion of soil, the loss of biodiversity, and the depletion of water resources. This is in turn leading to the degradation of the environment and the loss of the ability of the world to sustain its population.

The world's population is becoming more food insecure because of the increasing demand for food, land, and water. This is leading to the depletion of natural resources and the degradation of the environment. This is in turn leading to the loss of the ability of the world to sustain its population.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age is expected to increase by 1.5 billion (United Nations 1994).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of children in the 1990s. The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) has been instrumental in this regard, and has produced a series of reports on the state of the world's children (UNICEF 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994). These reports have highlighted the need for a new approach to children's rights, one that is based on the principle of the best interests of the child. This approach is reflected in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), which was adopted in 1989.

The UNCRC is a landmark document in the history of children's rights. It sets out a comprehensive framework of rights for children, and is the most widely ratified human rights treaty in the world. The Convention is based on the principle of the best interests of the child, and is designed to ensure that children are treated as individuals, with their own rights and needs. The Convention covers a wide range of issues, including the right to life, the right to education, the right to health, and the right to a family.

The UNCRC is a key document for the 1990s, and is a central focus of the work of UNICEF. The Convention is a testament to the commitment of the international community to the rights of children, and is a source of inspiration for all who work for the betterment of the world's children. The Convention is a call to action, and a challenge to all of us to ensure that every child has the opportunity to live a life of dignity and respect.

The American Revolution was many conflicts in one. A movement of a subject people for independence, it was the first of the great anti-colonial struggles. Both tragic and heroic, it was also a civil war that pitted brother against brother and a war against monarchy that gave birth to a republic. At once more moderate, more successful, and more enduring than other revolutions before and since it promised fulfillment of man's eternal dream of self government within a democratic society.

Actually the revolution began well before the Second Continental Congress declared the new nation independent. It began before the patriot minutemen exchanged gunfire with redcoats on the Lexington green.

Indeed, as John Adams observed, it began in the minds and hearts of the people even before hostilities developed. In his view, the radical change in the hearts, principles, options, sentiments, and affections of the people, was the real American Revolution.

What brought this radical change in the hearts and minds of the people who only a decade ago thought themselves to be patriotic and loyal citizens of the King? To many contemporaries, the quarrel began over tea and taxes, over oppressive imperial regulations and the British insistence on taxation without representation.

But in fact the roots of the struggle were deeply fixed in the ideas of John Locke, in the optimism of the Enlightenment, in the faith of the humane and liberal eighteenth-century thinkers of the Atlantic community who dared to believe that freedom was man's natural condition. Richard Henry Lee spoke for a Nation when he resolved "that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be free and independent States." But Thomas Jefferson in his immortal Declaration, spoke for the ages when he proclaimed it "self-evident that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that . . . Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers, from the consent of the governed."

These stirring words, scarcely more than abstractions in 1776, became the foundation upon which a newly independent people would erect a free and democratic state. These words helped sustain patriot soldiers at Breeds Hill, Valley Forge and Yorktown, through eight long and bloody years of struggle with England. They helped sustain the Founding Fathers who gathered in Philadelphia in 1787 to form a more perfect union. They sustained Washington as he fixed the nation's course and Lincoln as he labored to keep it intact. They sustained Wilson, Roosevelt, and Truman, in crisis and triumph, in doleful challenge and creative response. And today, at the bicentennium of our nation's birth, they sustain us still as we remember the meaning of our Revolution and rededicate our "minds and Hearts" to its enduring principles.

FRIENDSHIPS

This life is like a garden place,
Our friendships are the flowers,
The perfumes of the blossoms fair,
Are friendships pleasant hours.
Some friendships flower much too fast,
And fading, quickly die,
While others are like posies sweet
That flower perennially.

Mary Edith Halladay

MY NEIGHBOR

My neighbor, who is he?
Who lives next door to me—
The man I daily meet,
Out on the crowded street?
The man to whom I talk,
With whom I daily walk;
Who smiles across the fence,
Nor lacks good common sense?
The man afar from me,
In his great need of me,
May be the nearest me,
And so my neighbor be.
My neighbor, who is he?
Mayhap who most needs me,
Whose want lays hold of me,
He must my neighbor be.

E. A. Repass

TO KNOW ALL IS TO FORGIVE ALL
 If I knew you and you knew me—
 If both of us could clearly see,
 And with an inner sight divine
 The meaning of your heart and mine,
 If sure that we would differ less
 And clasp our hands in friendliness;
 Our thoughts would pleasantly agree
 If I knew you and you knew me.
 If I knew you and you knew me,
 As each one knows his own self, we
 Could look each other in the face
 And see therein a truer grace.
 Life has so many hidden woes,
 So many thorns for every rose;
 The "why" of things our hearts would see,
 If I knew you, and you knew me.

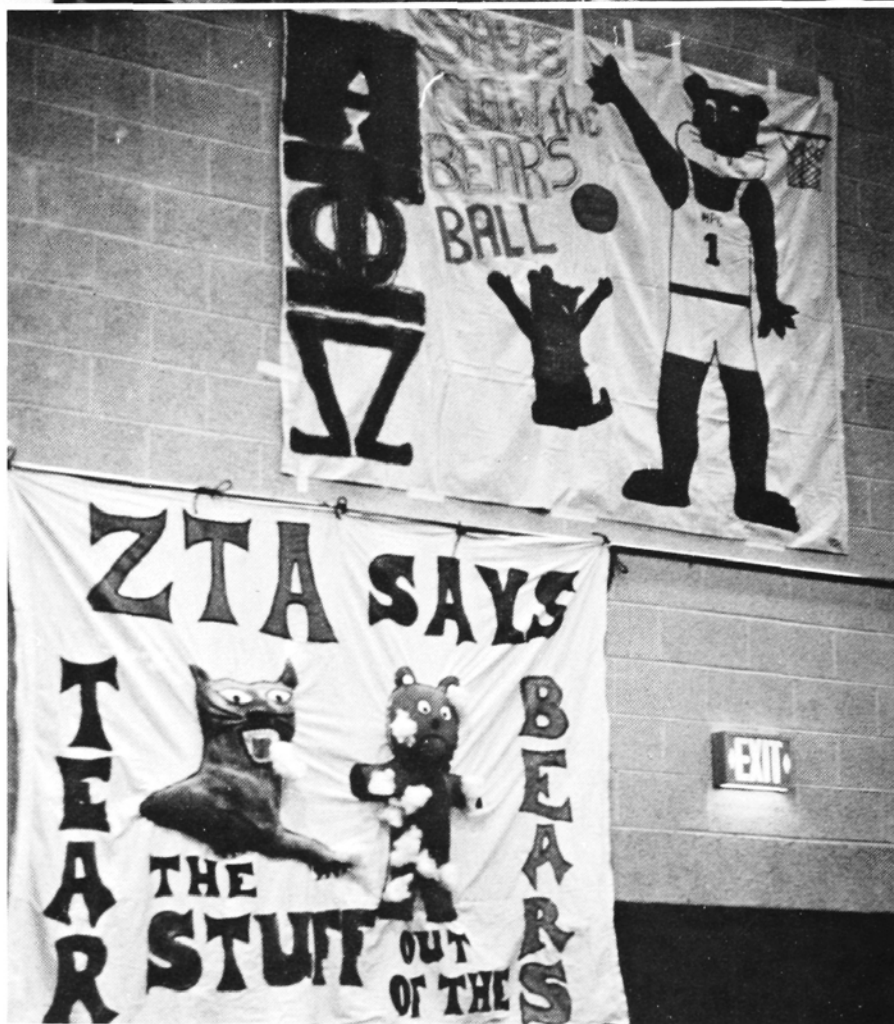

Nixon Waterman

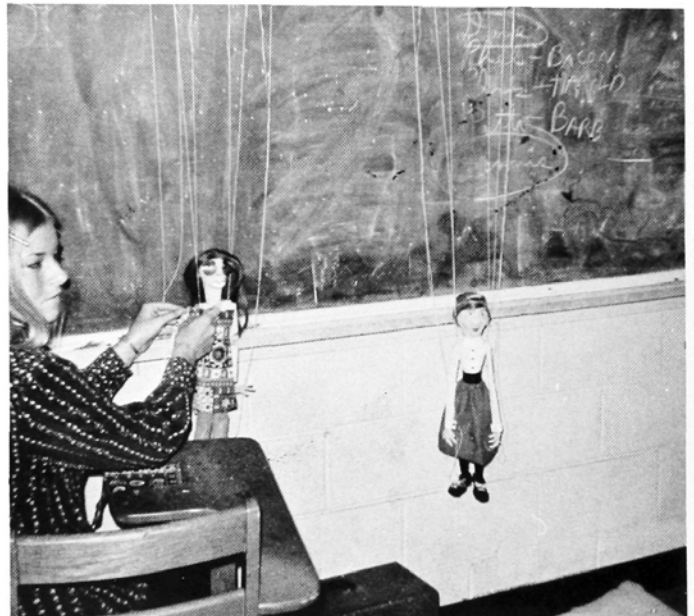

The love in your heart
 wasn't put there to stay
 Love isn't love til you give it away.

Randy Larzelere	6-1	150	Fr.	Long Valley, N.J.
Mark McIntyre	5-10	155	Fr.	Mocksville, N.C.

The cross country team set out to the best this year than any year in the schools history, and they almost pulled it off. But their bid for a ninth straight District 26 championship was upset by J.C. Smith in the district championship meet held here at High Point. They finished 9-1, one of their finest years ever. Top performers were freshmen Ron Dement and Randy Lazelere who finished in the top ten in the district and Dennis Covahey who had been the top runner until an injury in the mid-season sidelined him. Others that contributed to their winning effort were Perry Macheras, Dave Painter, John Hardison, Chip Wilson, and Dave Hearn. They finished 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, and 19th respectively in the district championships.

14-1-1 Conference Champs, Undefeated in regular season! That's a tough season to top. But the mighty Panther soccer team set out to do just that. Under the reigns of first year head Coach Ken Chartier, they fared rather well. Although they started out the first half of the season with a 3-2-1 record, came on strong to win five in a row only to have hopes of a second consecutive conference championship spoiled by Guilford College in the season finale. The Panthers completed their season with a 4-3 loss to Pfeiffer in the district playoffs. They finished with a 9-4-1 record, a fine year for first year coach Chartier.

Women's basketball at High Point College had been up and down for the past three or four years but was definitely on the upswing this year. With no less than nine letter winners from last years squad returning there was optimism in the Panther camp. Added to them two freshmen All-Starters and two All-State college transfers and you have your team.

Sophomore forwards Germaine McAuley, the teams leading scorer, and Dee Ann Clapp returned up front with 6'1 center Lynn Massi. In addition to those three Wanda Wilson, a two year starter at powerful Elon College, added scoring, rebounding and defense to the front court while Gracie Simmons saw a lot of action. Freshmen Denise Washington and Jody Westmoreland added depth to the front line.

Coach Alley took transfer Dawn Allred from North Carolina and put her to work on ballhandling and for experience added to the backcourt while freshmen Ethel White from Greensboro added speed and quickness. Returnees also from last year include Wendee Saintsing, Debbie Madden, Debbie Johnson, Wilma Moran, each of whom started at some time last season. Transfer Robyn Cooper and freshman Sharon Wall added depth to the backcourt. After a real tough schedule including all the conference teams and several NCAA schools, the Lady Panthers completed a fine year.

After last year's 6-8 mark the Panther lady netters look forward to a winning season this year. Returning are Libby Hancock and Susan Winchester who played among the top three last season. Caroline Clements, who played at the no. 1 or no. 2 position for three years, will pass up her final year of eligibility because of student teaching. Several newcomers added depth to the Panthers this year.

Coach Sara Quinto's team played several matches against Carolinas Conference opponents in addition to some outside competition.

The track team this year boasts depth and experience and looks to be the top contender for conference and district championships. With five men returning who were conference or district champions and several promising newcomers, the Panthers seemed destined to better last years record. The running events should prove to be very strong this year. Newcomers Dennis West and Larry Pass who have been timed at 9.7 and 9.5 respectively should combine with returning Pearly Shaw and freshman Kevin Gartner for an outstanding 440 relay team. The mile and three mile events should be well run by cross country runners Chip Wilson, Dennis Covahey, Ron Dement, and Randy Larzelere while the 880 will be run by Kevin Sullivan and Larry Potter. All panther home meets will be run on the new all-weather track installed this summer at Albion Millis Stadium.

1975-76 HPC Baseball Team

Panthers Feature Speed, Defense, Pitching

The Panther baseball team no longer has the long-ball hitting of Otis Foster and Danny Goins, but the 1976 team will be an exciting team to watch. Returning will be an experience pitching staff in Dan England (12-2) and Billy Sorrell (10-3) and Delvin Idol (7-0). Along with this talent will be Freshman Jeff Driscoll who could add depth in that department. Along with these performers return a lot of players who will add depth and leadership to this team. Strong defense and good pitching should be the strongpoint of this years team.

Thirty home runs, .476 batting average, 79 runs batted in. This describes the season that Otis Foster had last year. Otis was always there in the clutch when you needed him. He set conference records in longest hitting streak (26), RBI's (79), and Nationals records in Homeruns (30) and helped the team set a national record in Homeruns (77).

He rounded out the season being drafted Number 1 by the Boston Red Sox for their winter Haven farm club.

Although our seniors are leaving us here, A.O.T. and the Diamond Shield will always keep us close.

As we leave, going our separate ways this summer—many of us to return next fall—we leave the hall of first Yadkin empty, yet strong memories still echo of . . . "Somebody answer the phone!" . . . "Isn't he cute?" . . . thumper . . . "Excuse me!" . . . fida uda . . . "Are those brush burns?" . . . "We been kissin'" . . . pig out . . . "Has anyone heard from Nancy yet?" . . . "I'm excited" . . . "WHAT meeting?" . . . "Sauna anyone?" . . . "This is not good!" . . . "I'm not at all well" . . . being in like . . . "He always calls when I'm in the shower!" . . . "I'm serious!" . . . "It's not my job" . . . "This is it, gang!" . . . "Beatrice?" . . . "Are my flowers here yet?" . . . London phone calls . . . "Anybody kanobbing it?" . . . "Scratch my back" . . . "Who wants pizza?" . . .

The call of Zeta reached the hearts of our great pledges making our bond as strong, certainly, individuality and continuity is evidenced as . . . Marvy's rod and staff comforts the pledges as she continues to walk through the valley of the theatre. Lydia is seeing red, as in our accounts receivable. While Duner thinks Tuesdays don't come often enough now that Lynn's schemes for a lavalier came true, are her eyes on a ring? Smith—how's our favorite puss-n-boats? Phyllis has retired from the ranks of the unattached. While Lickett is about to become Mrs. Motorcycle Mama.

Kooterbird has left her pups and now spends time with the Zeta sweetheart, Mike Casey, while Willie takes time from her needlepoint to dribble a little. Cindy took us back to the fifties and revealed hidden talent, while Little I deserves a hand for a great rush and begins planning for a June wedding. Heavy, has John gone to any more beer bashes lately? Parise is spending her weekends studying the anatomy of a certain turtle as Jim is teaching Lee how to hustle! (Margaret?) Trish—God save our queen, she still loves everybody. Hi Harrington! (Why are you so happy all the time?) Nan, we've been meaning to speak to you about your behavior on the dance floor . . . Nina is still looking for a party—think your wedding bells could chime at Knob Creek? Karen keeps on us about our grades but smiles when we invade the files. The big three: Swan Bernie and her Camaro! Suju avoids the infirmary but sure doesn't avoid a someone in Tenn. Chris is happy (gay) speaks in tongues, and still serves slop. Saying good-bye is never easy, but each of us remembering our times together filled with the joys and sorrows of living are reminded that Zeta is forever!

Collegiate Press Announces Poetry Publication and Awards

American Collegiate Publications has announced it is now accepting applications for the second annual volume of Who's Who In Poetry In American Colleges and Universities. This is the only non-vanity poetry publication for students which is published in direct cooperation with collegiate institutions.

This publishing program has been created to give noteworthy student poets recognition. Through publication and awards, this program provides talented students with incentive and a tangible goal for the continued development of their writing skills.

Poets selected to appear in the 1976 volume will have their bio published along with an original poem. The 1975 volume of Who's Who In Poetry presented the work of 347 poets from 47 states.

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETICS

The American Humanics Students Association at High Point is made up of all students in the Human Relations/Youth Agency Leadership program. Through its elected officers and various committees it becomes a working laboratory experience in the methods used most commonly to administer the nations great volunteer youth agencies. It also serves well in fostering a common spirit of service and departmental fellowship, and as a vehicle for presenting career directed workshops and seminars.

To offer college level preparation for students interested in careers with America's youth serving agencies is the purpose of the American Humanics Youth Agency Leadership Program. Some of the agencies offering professional careers in this field are the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, YWCA, Campfire, Boys' Clubs and Girls' Clubs. This year's theme was presented at the Fall Retreat held at Roaring Gap. The theme "If I Don't, Who Will" served well throughout the school year. Other activities for the year included a series of workshops and career seminars, social events and field trips to youth agencies or events.

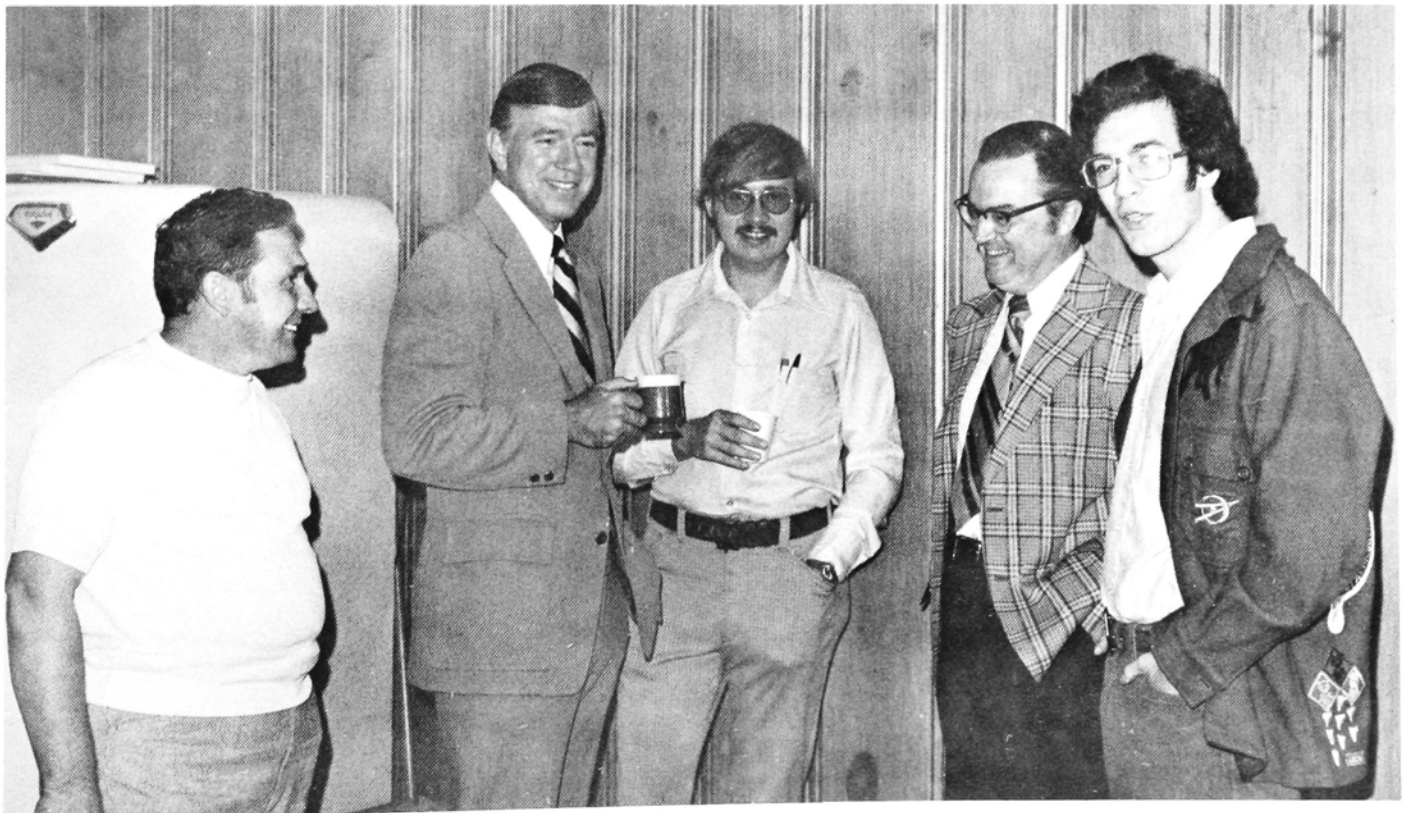

This year we celebrated our tenth year as American Humanics Student Association at High Point College. The Trustees and Directors of American Humanics, Inc. held their quarterly meeting here in recognition of our ten years.

FRIENDSHIP — the state of being friends, friendly feeling or attitude

Lots of things work

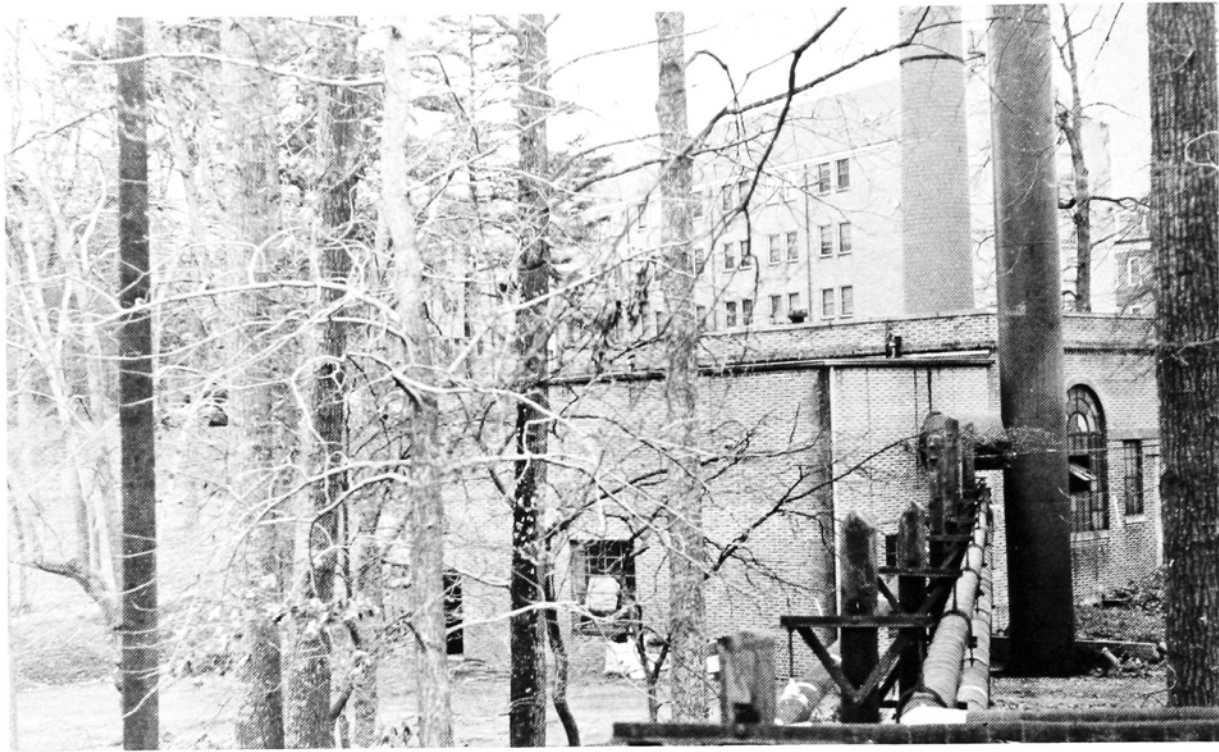

together

to form a campus

Changes occur from year to year,

from friend to friend.

Another year draws to a close

new friendships are formed,

old friendships linger on forever.

A yearbook is composed of many components. It has both its good and bad aspects. A yearbook requires planning and work on the behalf of many people. There are pictures to take, deadlines to meet, people to satisfy, and a desire to be left alone for a while.

In the process of putting a yearbook together you make an abundance of friends. Friends are to be considered the spice of life. Included in the high points of one's life are his friends.

A yearbook is composed of all these friends coming together in the shape of a picture or through the use of words. Friendships are everlasting, like yearbooks, but can be destroyed if abused too often.

The yearbook has been a challenge, but the closeness formed by the people who composed the book will remain forever. After all, FRIENDSHIPS are what High Point College is all about.
